

Average net paid circulation of
THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE
June, 1926
Daily - - - 738,718
Sunday - - 1,034,469

Chicago Daily Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

FINAL EDITION

VOLUME LXXXV.—NO. 171 C

REG. U. S. PAT. OFFICE. COPYRIGHT 1926
BY THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1926.—24 PAGES

THIS PAPER CONSISTS OF TWO SECTIONS—SECTION ONE * PRICE TWO CENTS IN CHICAGO AND SUBURBS ELSEWHERE THREE CENTS

SLAIN ROBBING U. OF C. PAIR

Plot to Balk Primary Quiz Charged

14 DEFY JURY HUNTING FRAUD IN 20TH WARD

44 Are Indicted for Election Thefts.

(Pictures on back page.)

In what appears to be a desperate effort to thwart the investigation by the special vote fraud committee of the Twentieth ward, which has been exposed as a notorious nest of vote thievery, defied the special grand jury, refusing to waive immunity and give testimony.

Their defiance came after 44 men and women were indicted for vote frauds and their arrest ordered immediately by Special State's Attorney Charles A. McDonald. Thirty-three of the defendants were from the iniquitous Twentieth, which is the stronghold of Morris Eiler, Crowe-Barrett political boss.

All Appear Defiant.

Undoubtedly some powerful politicians—probably one of those who directed the ballot thievery in the April primary—had instructed the clerks to turn the grand jury, the prosecutors believe, for not until yesterday did any witness refuse to testify.

While Prosecutor McDonald was reluctant to discuss the consequences of the conspiracy of silence, it was learned that many more indictments will be voted against the accused officials—and higher ups if they can be joined in the ballot thievery ring—on the basis that the scandalous discrepancies shown in the recount are alone sufficient grounds on which to prosecute the officials responsible.

Bar Decides on Trade Case.

At the same time came a decision by leaders of the Chicago Bar Association on the legal tangle presented in the Savage-Trude recount case. The decision was reached at a session of the board of managers and will be presented today before Judge Holdom. Judge Holdom had dismissed Judge Daniel P. Trude's petition for a recount of the votes for County Judge on the ground that it had been improperly filed in the Superior court, and he held further that he had no right to transfer it to the Circuit court, the proper tribunal.

Bar leaders appeared in court, declaring they viewed the suit as a matter of great public importance, and were invited by Judge Holdom to submit their opinion as to his proper legal procedure.

The members of the board of governors refused last night to discuss the nature of their finding.

Representative Is Indicted.

In the list of those indicted yesterday in William Pacelli, state representative from the 17th senatorial district, and a Crowe-Barrett lieutenant. He is a co-defendant of Harry Hochstein, who is listed as a Deneen-Lundin ward leader, but who is believed by the prosecutors to have made a switch to the Crowe-Barrett forces on the eve of primary day.

Pacelli and Hochstein were named with judges and clerks of the 20th precinct of the 20th ward, and are accused of having been connected with the stuffing of 249 fraudulent votes into the ballot box of that precinct.

The other defendants in the precinct are Joseph Scala, a judge of election, 740 De Koven street; Felix Cunliffe, judge, 747 De Koven street; Tony Cunliffe, judge, 741 Bunker street; August Damore, Deneen precinct worker, 742 Bunker street; Dominic Caruso, 728 De Koven street; John De Salvo, 728 De Koven street, and Ben De Salvo, 701 South Halsted street.

Crowe-Barrett candidates profited principally by the steal of the 249 votes, it was revealed in the recount.

List of Others Indicted.

The others indicted are the following:

4TH PRECINCT—18TH WARD.

Edward Feltine, judge, 4612 South Lathrop street; Charles W. Stabulski, judge, 4584 Gross street; Frank Jurus, 323 South Bishop street; Joseph Agnew, 4514 South Marshall street;

Postscript on page 4, column 2.

Berlenbach Loses Title to Delaney

Jack Delaney, fighting challenger from Bridgeport, Conn., is successful in battle for light heavyweight title, beating Paul Berlenbach in 15 round fight at Ebbets field, Brooklyn. Delaney outboxes and outpunches the champion. Forty-five thousand attend fight. (Details in sport section.)

NEWS SUMMARY

LOCAL

Youth slain by police after he holds up U. of Chicago students. Page 1.

Charge conspiracy of silence to balk primary quiz as 44 are indicted for thievery. Page 1.

McElane and jail guard tips in court; threaten judge and prosecutor; inquiry started. Page 1.

State would have waterway terminal considered and settled in connection with river straightening. Page 2.

Union chief spikes talk of "L" strike as workers and employees continue conflict. Page 2.

Writes checks for taxi drivers; now she is in cell. Page 2.

New policeman kills neighbor during fight in yard; stories of quarrel continue. Page 3.

Autos kill six in day and ten in two days; county toll raised to 43¢. Page 3.

Tax figures show personal property assessments of Cook county banks have nearly doubled in year. Page 5.

Chief Collins seeks names of policemen in hijacking case. Page 5.

Prosecutors marshal army of facts to indict county speed trappers. Page 5.

Radio programs. Page 5.

Obituaries, death notices. Page 8.

DOMESTIC

Canton, O., editor shot to death from ambush; had received threatening letters in his crusade against vice. Page 1.

Governor and Mrs. E. A. Smith are luncheon guests of the Coolidges at White Pine camp. Page 1.

"Kidnapping" defense tries to refute testimony of five that they saw Alime after her disappearance. Page 1.

Henry W. Taft, addressing American Bar association, blames high fees to alibiists for breakdown of justice to criminals. Page 3.

Charges made in a divorce petition start new investigation of the Hall-Mills murder mystery. Page 4.

Director of Bankers Trust Company of Atlanta, Ga., now in bankruptcy, ends own life. Page 5.

Autos kill six in day and ten in two days; county toll raised to 43¢. Page 3.

Lower temperatures are expected to set in today in the west and by late evening or early Sunday it is expected there will be a noticeable drop in Chicago. There is no rain in prospect, according to C. A. Donnel, assistant forecaster. Page 8.

WASHINGTON.

Interstate commerce commission denies general five per cent freight rate advance to western railroads. Page 3.

Marriages performed at sea by masters of American ships are null and void, shipping board attorney rules; many notable couples affected. Page 5.

FOREIGN

Joint session of Filipino senate and house follows that Thompson informed Coolidge of intense desire of "slanders for immediate and complete independence." Page 5.

Defeated in committee, Briand-Cailhau government throws dictatorship before chamber of deputies tomorrow; fiscal slumps to 42¢ the dollar. Page 2.

British liquor and shipping interests open fire on Gen. Andrews' pending agreements for search of British vessels in British waters. Page 2.

SPOTS.

Galler's raspberry in women's park golf wrecks tradition; Miss Weltman and Mrs. Jacobs in final today. Page 13.

Old Max Brick, saddled by Old Mother and ridden by Old Pickens, wins handicap at Homewood. Page 13.

McGraw and McCarthy start trying to outthink each other at Club park today. Page 13.

Tilden to play Lott today in Cincinnati tennis tourney. Page 13.

George Huff holds gain, London physicians report. Page 13.

Salta, 3 years old gelding, at last wins maiden race. Page 14.

Central polo tournament opens at Owonton today. Page 14.

EDITORIALS.

The Lawyer's Responsibility: Declarator Now in the Philippines: "All Mankind's Concern." Page 6.

BOOKS.

Fanny Butcher's review. Page 7.

London book news. Page 7.

Best sellers. Page 7.

MARKETS.

Crops burning up from drought in southern part of Nebraska. Page 14.

Crop damage reports send wheat soaring; corn sags in selling. Page 14.

Stock prices shoot upward under lead of high grade industrials. Page 15.

INVESTIGATING THE BALLOT BOX FRAUDS

When circumstantial evidence involves the local G. O. P.

When later circumstantial evidence involves the local Dems.

HEAT WILL LAST THROUGH TODAY, FORECASTER SAYS

Mostly fair weather and high temperatures, possibly higher than the maximum of 88 reached in Chicago yesterday, will prevail today, according to the weather bureau.

In the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys yesterday heat records were established. At Minneapolis the mercury touched 102 degrees, said to be the highest ever registered there. Many other points had maximums of 100 degrees.

Lower temperatures are expected to set in today in the west and by late evening or early Sunday it is expected there will be a noticeable drop in Chicago. There is no rain in prospect, according to the weather bureau.

Charges made in a divorce petition start new investigation of the Hall-Mills murder mystery. Page 4.

Director of Bankers Trust Company of Atlanta, Ga., now in bankruptcy, ends own life. Page 5.

Autos kill six in day and ten in two days; county toll raised to 43¢. Page 3.

Lower temperatures are expected to set in today in the west and by late evening or early Sunday it is expected there will be a noticeable drop in Chicago. There is no rain in prospect, according to the weather bureau.

The weather map, he said, indicated that the cooling off in the northwest would extend here. There was a possibility of a moderate cold front, he added, which would keep the local district in the grip of heat, with a possibility of high temperatures on Monday.

The weather map, he said, indicated that the cooling off in the northwest would extend here. There was a possibility of a moderate cold front, he added, which would keep the local district in the grip of heat, with a possibility of high temperatures on Monday.

Joint session of Filipino senate and house follows that Thompson informed Coolidge of intense desire of "slanders for immediate and complete independence." Page 5.

Defeated in committee, Briand-Cailhau government throws dictatorship before chamber of deputies tomorrow; fiscal slumps to 42¢ the dollar. Page 2.

British liquor and shipping interests open fire on Gen. Andrews' pending agreements for search of British vessels in British waters. Page 2.

SPOTS.

Galler's raspberry in women's park golf wrecks tradition; Miss Weltman and Mrs. Jacobs in final today. Page 13.

Old Max Brick, saddled by Old Mother and ridden by Old Pickens, wins handicap at Homewood. Page 13.

McGraw and McCarthy start trying to outthink each other at Club park today. Page 13.

Tilden to play Lott today in Cincinnati tennis tourney. Page 13.

George Huff holds gain, London physicians report. Page 13.

Salta, 3 years old gelding, at last wins maiden race. Page 14.

Central polo tournament opens at Owonton today. Page 14.

EDITORIALS.

The Lawyer's Responsibility: Declarator Now in the Philippines: "All Mankind's Concern." Page 6.

BOOKS.

Fanny Butcher's review. Page 7.

London book news. Page 7.

Best sellers. Page 7.

MARKETS.

Crops burning up from drought in southern part of Nebraska. Page 14.

Crop damage reports send wheat soaring; corn sags in selling. Page 14.

Stock prices shoot upward under lead of high grade industrials. Page 15.

54 Swept to Death When Dikes of Danube Break

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, July 16.—(U. S.)—Fifty-four persons, most of them trapped in lofts where they have lived since the recent cloudburst, are dead as the result of an avalanche of water turned loose with the breaking of the Danube dykes at Apatin and Neusatz.

"Send me back to Indiana," shouted McElane as he jumped to his feet and

POLICE BULLETS DROP BANDIT NEAR MIDWAY

Youth and Co-ed on Street Victims.

Al Enjoys Those Trout Cal Caught

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

Paul Smiths, N. Y., July 16.—(Special)—Two men in character as opposite as the poles, who may be rival contenders for the presidency in 1928, met and exchanged amenities over a luncheon table in an Adirondack camp.

It was the occasion of the official welcome to the Adirondacks extended to the President and Mrs. Coolidge by Gov. Al Smith of New York.

The governor, accompanied by Mrs. Smith and their daughters and one of their sons, Alfred Jr., reached Paul Smiths hotel this forenoon. Shortly after 1 o'clock Capt. Wilson Brown Jr., the President's naval aid, appeared in a White House limousine and conducted the governor and Mrs. Smith to White Pine camp, three miles distant.

Given Official Reception

At the camp tenanted by the President and Mrs. Coolidge the governor and his wife were received with official ceremony. The governor's suite was fired and the maid, according to the President, was the first to be hit. The two policemen, who had been standing by, were formally presented by Capt. Brown. Thereupon the governor extended to the distinguished visitors the state's official hospitality and the President made a brief reply of appreciation. Just what was said was not given out, though according to Hosa Bigelow Jr., the exchange of pleasantries ran something like this:

"Glad to have you come; just make yourselves at home." Said Gov. Al to President Cal: "Glad to have you come; just make yourselves at home."

BREAK CRIME J PUT ON

Henry W.
Highly P

BY ART

[Chicago Tribune]
Denver, Colo.
Trick experts, al and psychiatrist in the country color their testi sires of their em sanity defense."
gloves today by society.

Henry W. Taft

is pleased as a whose resources giant and m ingenuity, techn mony, and the widespread belie witnesses has bee judgment influen their emp
them as compone

Would Have

The committee other things than expert witness amount of their be paid by the
to get no other judge should be p on the meaning a per testimony and jury.

At the closing Whitman, former was elected association, suc
of Wichita, Kas.

Simplification enable the machin with modernized derlying thought has brought a g in the variou

Racees Judg

second, contribut ideas for getting shackles and stra too many laws.

1. Let the judg of the courts and legislatures.

2. Let judiciary within the bench
an advisory capa

"I assume," sa

excuse idea of co

or a practice act
sume we shall re law system of reg rules of court in its details to legiti manized model ne

New York in 1847

These two th rules of procedure and the judicial foundation of all reform.

A bureau of res
ized at the Univers make scientific inq working out. Henr the University s school, said:

"We are on the important char

with the full du

we are looking at how it is perform

Must Have

Among the chal
the requirement persons who ente

Michigan Law

B. A. degree.

One series of much weight is

the section of cri

Oscar Hallam of S

In discussing met criminal escape

down the followin

1. Require grea

stages of the pro

ord of the reason for the acceptance

for an offense le charged.

2. A written r

for every suspensi

every parole or pa

3. Simplify indi

the amendment.

4. Eliminate u

ances.

5. Eliminate st

Would Lim

6. Simplify the improve their p

the number of ch greater power of

7. Permit com

of the accused t

behalf.

8. Require a p

made on arraig commitment of observation by ex clusion of experts.

9. Shorten the

in which crime is in possession of a

11. Permit par

after trial judg

12. Revise pro

to speed up tri nalities.

Am safe

now

still

See an

by ST

JUL

in the

Too Many Checks but No Money Leads Woman to Cell

MAHON SPIKES STRIKE TALK IN "L" WAGE ISSUE

Parleys Continue Over Increase Demand.

Possibilities of an immediate strike of elevated and North Shore line employees were called slight yesterday by W. D. Mahon, international president of the International Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, in a statement issued following a conference between elevated officials and the employees' committee.

President Mahon expressed himself as well satisfied with the results of yesterday's conference, which is con sidering the employees' demand for an adjustment in salaries, sick benefits, and insurance for disability and death.

"We want to ask the public to pay no attention to the strike talk that is coming from certain quarters," President Mahon said. "The electric railroads, the employees of Chicago are conservative men and women. They are all citizens of Chicago and have no desire to become engaged in a strike. They are loyal to the policies and principles of their organizations, which provide before any strike shall be considered or take place, that in all disputes of this kind there must first be mediation, conciliation, and then arbitration, and after the refusal of these propositions then a strike would be a matter of consideration."

"We have not exhausted these efforts and, therefore, no thought or consideration has been given to a strike."

Both sides have taken the questions in dispute under consideration and will meet for further discussion Monday. In the meantime officials of the union will seek a conference with the surface lines.

Elevated and surface line trainmen are asking for a five cent an hour increase, a sick benefit of $20 a week, and $1,000 benefit in case of death.

NEW WATERWAY BARGE LINE IS ORGANIZED HERE

Anticipating favorable action by the United States Senate in December on the deep waterway bill on the Chicago river which will provide passenger and freight service between Chicago and New Orleans and intermediate points to be known as the Chicago and New Orleans transportation company.

Although it does not expect to begin operating for two years, plans already have been made to let contracts for equipment as soon as the bill is passed by the senate. The measure has been approved by Mr. Mellon regarded as "erroneous comparisons in the American press of the British-French and the American-French debt settlements."

Secretary Mellon asserted that, in effect, the United States has canceled the obligations of France for all advances made during the war, the payment of the entire settlement being taken up again by the advances to France after the war ended.

"It also appears that you propose to fill the Armour and Union slips, thus depriving navigation interests of these two valuable existing facilities, which, if maintained, will be far more valuable when the Illinois waterway is completed, providing an all-water route extending from Chicago to New Orleans.

Hopes for Water Terminal.

"These letters remain unanswered and the ordinance passed by the council does not seem to provide the facilities for waterway commerce suggested and only needed to accommodate the downtown commercial interests of Chicago.

"It also appears that you propose to fill the Armour and Union slips, thus depriving navigation interests of these two valuable existing facilities, which, if maintained, will be far more valuable when the Illinois waterway is completed, providing an all-water route extending from Chicago to New Orleans.

Hopes for Water Terminal.

"This office is not unmindful of the importance to the city and the railroads involved of this project, but it hopes that in the straightening of the river and the relocating of railroad terminal facilities some provision has been made or may yet be made to retain the public terminal for packet freight in less than carload lots to meet the commercial needs of downtown Chicago."

The department of waterways has referred the city's request for a permit to the engineering department. Following its report public hearings will be held to consider the recommendations.

Lincoln J. Carter

Leaves $75,000 Estate

Goshen, Ind., July 16. [Special]—The will of Lincoln J. Carter, playboy, author, lecturer, and dramatics, who died on Tuesday, will be filed for probate tomorrow. The will disposes of an estate of estimated value of $75,000. Papers in possession of Carter at the time of his death show that upon divorcing his first wife fifteen years ago he turned over approximately $500,000 to her and started his finances anew.

Fannie May's wonderful home-made Candies are made fresh today — and every day — by Fannie May, and sold only by Fannie May, at 76c a pound, which represents a saving to you, through 30 Fannie May Shops — all over Chicago. If you want Fannie May quality you must buy from Fannie May. There's a Fannie May Candy Shop near you.

The Name "FANNIE MAY" Is Known for One Thing— Wonderful Home-Made Candies

Fannie May's wonderful home-made Candies are made fresh today — and every day — by Fannie May, and sold only by Fannie May, at 76c a pound, which represents a saving to you, through 30 Fannie May Shops — all over Chicago. If you want Fannie May quality you must buy from Fannie May. There's a Fannie May Candy Shop near you.

30 FANNIE MAY SHOPS—ALL OVER CHICAGO

WINNERS in the Greater Niles Center LETTER CONTEST

1st Prize—$250

Francis O'Shaughnessy, 10 South La Salle St.

2nd Prize—$100

Sidney J. Loeb, Chicago Beach Hotel

3rd Prize—$50

C. E. Williams, 911 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill.

4 Prizes—$25 Each

Mrs. E. C. Armbruster, 5827 Fulton St.

T. D. Lyons, 5542 South Throop St.

E. C. Sullivan, 2036 Birchwood Ave.

Louis Witt, Webster Hotel

$10 prizes to 30 additional contestants and

$5 prizes to 40 additional contestants are also being mailed

The Greater Niles Center District

A Triangle of Fortune, Destined to be

Chicago's Greatest Suburb

Practically all the letters that were sent to the Greater Niles Center Association stated that Niles Center is one of Chicago's choicest opportunities for profitable investment.

Greater NILES CENTER

Association

TELL COOLIDGE WE ASK LIBERTY, CRY OF FILIPINOS

Legislature Passes Plea; Greets Thompson.

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MANILA, Philippines, July 16.—Before a joint session marking the opening of the Philippines legislative body today the senate and house of representatives agreed unanimously in a resolution asking Col. Carmel A. Thompson to inform President Coolidge of the intense desire of the people for immediate, absolute and complete independence.

Secretary Franks read Gov. Gen.

Leonard Wood's annual message. Col.

Thompson was the only speaker applauded and Manuel Quezon, president of the senate, forced the half-hearted

clapping before and after his speech.

Francis Franks read Gov. Gen.

Leonard Wood's annual message. Col.

Thompson was the only speaker ap-

plauded and Manuel Quezon, president of the senate, forced the half-hearted

clapping before and after his speech.

Francis Franks read Gov. Gen.

Leonard Wood's annual message. Col.

Thompson was the only speaker ap-

plauded and Manuel Quezon, president of the senate, forced the half-hearted

clapping before and after his speech.

Francis Franks read Gov. Gen.

Leonard Wood's annual message. Col.

Thompson was the only speaker ap-

pl

4 * * DIVORCE PLEA NEW HALL-MILLS MURDERS CLEW

Reopen Inquiry on Deaths of Rector and Woman.

Trenton, N. J., July 16.—[Special]—State police today launched a new investigation of the murders in September, 1922, of the Rev. Dr. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills. Dr. Hall was rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Divine at New Brunswick, N. J. Mrs. Mills, the widow of the church sexton, was a member of the choir. Their bodies were found together under a tree on a farm near New Brunswick. The unsolved case has been revived after four years by the filing of a suit in the Chancery court here by Arthur S. Riehl of Roselle Park, seeking annulment of his marriage to Louise E. Geist, who at the time of the crime was a maid employed in the rectory at New Brunswick.

State Police Investigate.

Maj. Mark O. Kimberling, acting superintendent of the state police, this afternoon detailed a subordinate to work on the case and went to See Gist to talk over the situation with Gov. Moore.

Riehl's petition attributed to his wife certain statements appearing to involve her. Dr. Hall's widow, Mrs. Hall's brother, "Willie" Stevens, and the family chauffeur, Peter Tumulty, in the murder mystery.

Riehl charged that his wife received $5,000 for her part in the affair and for keeping quiet about it. He also declared his wife said, "Certain county officials of Middlesex county were always taken care of for preventing anybody from 'breaking' the case."

Charges Made by Husband.

Outstanding among the direct charges made in Riehl's petition are the following:

That his wife had improper relations with the clergyman; that Mrs. Riehl, Mrs. Hall, Stevens, and Tumulty motored, on the night of the crime, to the Phillips farm, where the murders were committed, and that principals in the case had deliberately concealed important facts from the grand jury.

Riehl said his wife told him the following facts regarding the murder case:

"She said at about 3 o'clock on Thursday, Sept. 14, 1922, Dr. Hall had left his home, taking a large sum of money with him, and telling her to say to Mrs. Hall that he would be gone for a couple of days, but respondent told Mrs. Hall that she knew he intended to sleep with Mrs. Mills. Mrs. Hall was at that time lying down in her home with a headache."

"Dr. Hall had taken his automobile and driven away, never to return, about 10 or 11 o'clock that night. The respondent, Mrs. Hall and one 'Willie' Stevens, were driven in Dr. Hall's other automobile to the Phillips farm house by Peter Tumulty, the chauffeur. Both the respondent and Mrs. Hall had worn black dresses that night."

LAWYERS ATTACK U. S. SURRENDER OF CHINA RIGHTS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

SHANGHAI, July 16.—That the efforts of the United States and other powers to settle the long standing Shanghai mixed court dispute seriously has compromised the foreign lawyers here is indicated today in a protest lodged with the consular body by the Chinese officials against the premature publication of the tentative terms for settling the issue.

The Chinese officials say the version published by the foreign attorneys is inaccurate, resulting in the creation of needless apprehension to the foreign commercial community.

The American lawyers, through the Far Eastern American Bar association, today published a manifesto attacking the mixed court surrender terms. The manifesto says that China is without a constitution, without law codes, and that the Chinese judges are subject to intimidation by military and higher officials, and that the Chinese law which is subject to Chinese jurisdiction inevitably will make the security of foreign residents and the conduct of business impossible.

BRITISH MINERS ACCEPT PEACE OFFER, REPORT

LONDON, July 16.—(AP)—The Press Association says that a member of the executive committee of the British Miners' federation stated this afternoon that peace proposals suggested by a group of Anglican bishops have been accepted.

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

CHARGE PLOT TO BALK VOTE QUIZ OF GRAND JURY

44 Are Indicted for Primary Frauds.

(Continued from first page.)

Joseph Haas, 1419 West 45th street; John Fisher, 4544 Justine street, and Frank Kennard, 1436 West 45th street.

1ST PRECINCT—29TH WARD.

Pompey Taylor, Judge, 728 Taylor street; Alfred Arreton, Judge, 901 South Halsted street; Frank, Mrs. Mills, 905 South Halsted street; Dominic Romano, clerk, 709 West Taylor street; and Peter Marcantonio, clerk, 760 West Taylor street.

2TH PRECINCT—29TH WARD.

Nathaniel Pugh, Judge, 1564 Miller street; Charles Phillips, Judge, 928 West 14th street; Della Robins, Judge, 1112 West 14th street; Henry Mitchell, clerk, 1254 Miller street, and Hyman Smith, clerk, 1114 West 14th street.

3TH PRECINCT—29TH WARD.

Max Satt, Judge, 1301 South Peoria street; Julius Schwartz, Judge, 549 West Roosevelt road; Charles Ginsburg, Judge, 1301 South Peoria street; Samuel Wall, clerk, 901 West Roosevelt road, and Frances Solomon, clerk, 1307 South Peoria street.

4TH PRECINCT—29TH WARD.

Alex R. Price, Judge, 1224 Blue Island avenue; Sam H. Herr, Judge, 1130 Washburn avenue; Ben Bernstein, Judge, 1301 Miller street; Hyman Goldstein, clerk, 1041 West Roosevelt road; Joseph Blum, clerk, 1242 South Morgan street.

5TH PRECINCT—29TH WARD.

Bernie Cohen, Judge, 1445 South Halsted street; Pauline Ochicinski, clerk, 3216 Wall street; Anna Boyle, Judge, 1241 West 42d street, and Frank J. Parry, Judge, 3214 South Wall street.

As the recount of votes continued in the office of the election commissioners it was revealed that County Judge Edmund K. Jurek, who is the Democratic nominee to succeed himself, had received a total of 2,100 stolen votes in 22 precincts.

C.B. Loses Heavier.

With 271 precincts of the Republican vote recounted, the average losses of the candidates of the Grove-Barrett ticket mounted last night to 4,853 votes for each candidate. Those left the Deneen-Lundin banner have suffered an average loss of 2,256.

"While in almost all cases the steals for Grove-Barrett candidates were higher than for their opponents, County Commissioner Charles N. Goodnow, who, on the face of the returns, was defeated by Henry S. Golins, colored, by more than 5,000 votes, sought a recount, and has fallen 1,344 votes further behind."

Samego, nominee for County judge, has lost a net 2,919 votes to Judge Trude. Francis L. Boutell, who won the nomination for president of the county board, has lost 2,531 votes to William Busse.

In the Republican race for Municipal Judge Assistant State's Attorney Robert E. McMillan continues to hold the lead over William Morgan for last winning place by 65 votes.

Developments in the Democratic race tend to support the claim of the Bremner faction leaders that the recount is a futile project, for in the 13th ward the recount showed that they were swamped by the Brennanites.

The average losses by the Brennan candidates in the 13th ward was $62 per candidate, giving an average steal in the 20 precincts of more than 40 votes per precinct for each candidate.

Wheeler's
135 So. State St.
4th Floor over Peacocks

Open Saturday Evenings Until 9 P. M.
Other Days: 8:30 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Ask Mr. Jones
Ask Him
Today!

Mr. Jones is an intelligent, live, progressive man whom you respect... just ask him whether or not it's a good idea to use CHEERFUL CREDIT for the new clothes you need... and he'll answer immediately... YES!

BUY NOW—SAVE NOW—PAY LATER

All Spring and Summer
MEN'S SUITS REDUCED

Every suit a smart, stylish model
—1 or 2 pants... hand tailored... every spring and summer suit included in these reductions.

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

AMERICA'S
SAFEST CAR
NOW MADE
STILL SAFER

See announcement
by STUTZ on
JULY 18th
in this paper

The miners' executive was quoted as saying that the proposal to return to work for four months under the present conditions had been accepted by the committee with but few minor alterations. He expressed the belief that new negotiations would be undertaken next week. There is talk of help being expected from the United States.

Chicago Daily Tribune.
THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

FOUNDED JUNE 18, 1847

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER JUNE 2, 1902, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT CHICAGO, ILL., UNDER ACT OF MARCH 2, 1925.

All contributions, articles, manuscripts, letters and pictures sent to The Tribune are sent at the owner's risk, and The Tribune company expressly repudiates any liability or responsibility for their safe custody or return.

SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1926.

THE TRIBUNE OFFICES.

CHICAGO-SQUARE.
NEW YORK-512 FIFTH AVENUE.
PHILADELPHIA-1414 SPRUCE BUILDING.
BOSTON-715 CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUILDING.
LOS ANGELES-408 HAAS BUILDING.
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA-540 COLLINS AVENUE.
LONDON-130 FLEET STREET, E. C. 4.
PARIS-BUREAU, 100 RUE SAINT HONORE.
BERLIN-UNTER DEN LINDEN.
PEKING-GRAND HOTEL DES WAGON-LITS.
SHANGHAI-4 AVENUE EDWARD VII.
TOKYO-IMPERIAL HOTEL.
MOSCOW CITY-HOTEL REGIS.

"Our Country! In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong." —Stephen Decatur.

THE TRIBUNE'S PLATFORM FOR METROPOLITAN CHICAGO

1. Make Chicago the First City in the World.
2. Start Building a Subway.
3. Electrify the Railroads.
4. Abolish the Smoke Palls.
5. Build Safe Streets and Highways.
6. Re-establish Constitutional Representation.

THE LAWYERS' RESPONSIBILITY.

The report of the American Bar association committed on citizenship is a striking arraignment of American tendency in our day. It does not offer any novel judgment, for the intellectual air has been full of similar criticisms contributed by public men with increasing frequency. If the drift toward centralization and bureaucracy and away from representative government, local autonomy and individual liberty has not been checked, it is not through want of the warnings of gray beards. Certainly THE TRIBUNE in and out of season has preached against it, but we are quite aware that to arrest a movement so broad and viewed, as most men view it, in detail so often plausibly is a long job.

Yet perhaps it is nearer success than we dare to think. We should like to believe that the very sound and brilliant summary, conveyed by this committee to their applauding brothers of the bar means that the awakening of American political and social intelligence is pretty general among the grads of citizens which counts most in the direction of our course. But in any case it is most encouraging to find that a profession which has more to do than any other class, year by year, with the character of our legislation is beginning to rebel. Lawyers, we venture to say, are not only more numerous in our legislatures than any other calling, but are much more influential than their numerical proportion alone would justify. They are the heads of more important committees and they are usually the presiding officers, and in policies generally they preponderate in leadership. This being the case they have a special responsibility for keeping our legislation in right channels, but they have also as a class and profession a responsibility for directing and correcting public opinion.

We have no disposition to indict a profession, but we do think the lawyers of America have not done their full duty of public instruction and protest against the tendencies summarized in the report referred to. We are not thinking so much of the tendency to centralization and bureaucratic regulation, for that involves a general policy upon which the layman's judgment ought to be as sound and perhaps as alert as the lawyer's. But when the fundamental character of our constitutional system is invaded, and in order to make the invasion effectual there springs up a harvest of laws, regulations, and administrative activities which makes a mockery of constitutional guarantees, it is the American lawyers who should have risen en masse to defend American principles, to clarify the confused public mind, to point out the meaning and predict the unescapable consequences of such departures from American doctrine and well proved practice.

All this movement which has proceeded under the guise of reform and in the odor of sanctity has been in fact nothing short of revolutionary. It has begun the degradation of our constitution from a fundamental and enduring expression of general political principle to a catchall of legislative impulse and ephemeral political expediency. It has begun to break down the guarantees of private liberty which past generations of American freemen have cherished as their most precious birthright. If ever in the history of our country there has been need for a courageous assertion of the American faith and for a resolute and unflinching defense of the American system of free government, that need has stood forth during the last decade.

That assertion and that defense were the privilege, the opportunity and the duty of the American bar and bench more than of any other class of our citizenship. No wonder, therefore, that the assembled lawyers at Denver were shocked to be told that ignorance of constitutional law is prevalent in the profession. It must be or the alternative is worse, for if lawyers are not ignorant their failure to make themselves heard and felt powerfully against the perversion and degradation of our institutions must mean their indifference, and that is less excusable than ignorance.

We, though laymen, have fought against the course of events and shall continue to fight for the fundamentals of American free government, and we appeal to laymen throughout the country to wake up and take a hand in their defense. Their influence is powerful and pervasive, and it is the chief of their public duties as citizens and as lawyers to exert it, as individuals in their respective communities in their places in legislative bodies and on the bench, and collectively in their professional associations. If they fail here, they must bear a special responsibility for the inevitable failure of the American experiment in democracy, in ordered liberty, a special guilt that a great people has bartered its birthright for a mess of pottage.

"ALL MANKIND'S CONCERN."

Each summer it is the self-imposed duty and privilege of THE TRIBUNE to receive and administer funds for the maintenance of Camp Algonquin and the distribution of free ice. THE TRIBUNE does this with the feeling that institutions, like individuals, cannot live a full life unless they devote a part of their time, a portion of their energy and prosperities, to the task of aiding and comforting those less fortunate. The newspaper is, of course, but the agent for the hundreds who annually make donations.

The result makes the charitable effort eminently worth while. Happier, healthier children, refreshed, reinvigorated mothers, are the reward of those who give to Camp Algonquin. The knowledge that their contributions have provided the means of saving scores of babies from the sickness and death that comes when fresh milk cannot be had repays many fold those who donate to the free ice fund. At this writing the totals of both funds are about $1,100. We are anxious to see them grow. The hottest part of the summer is still ahead. This is when these funds are needed most. The appeal to help unfortunate children and mothers and babies is one that should touch every more fortunate person. Of those who are not already giving all they can afford to some other charity we are willing donations to the Camp Algonquin and the free ice funds.

DECATUR NOW IN THE PHILIPPINES.

A more spokesman for Mindanao and Sulu told Col. Thompson, who is trying to find out what the Moros really want and what would be best for them and for the United States, that what the Moros wanted was direct rule by Americans and none by Filipinos. The Philippine Islands have about as many complications as they have square miles and the relations of the Moros and the Filipinos to each other furnish some of the worst of them.

That these Mohammedans would not submit peacefully to Tagalog rule is ascertained by a certainty and that they could not be subjugated from Manila as a probability. That is one of the difficulties America considers when it considers what is best to do.

We'll submit the situation, in this respect and others, to the people who dislike the Decatur sentiment so much. What is right in the Philippines? To remain or get out? To govern these islanders for their own good whether most of them like it or not or to give them their complete liberty no matter what they do with it or what some other nation then does to them? To keep the Christian Filipinos at peace with the Mohammedans or allow them to fight it out if they can't agree? To surrender any advantages which the United States has and may develop under peaceful American rule or to sacrifice this, counting the danger of international complications is too great?

To get out because we may have a war if we remain there or to stay because, the Filipinos are certain to have one if we get out? Do the people who do not like Decatur's motto believe that they could come to any unanimity of opinion on this? Is the right so clearly one way and the wrong so clearly the other that only an intentionally wrong headed person could make a mistake?

From the time Dewey knocked those apples at Uncle Sam's feet they have been apples of discord here in America. Some Americans have abused Uncle Sam as a land stealing tyrant. Others have praised him as a humanitarian teacher and protector, and sincere people have thought one way and other sincere people have thought another way. We've had it in presidential campaigns. It gets into political conventions. It is always in congress and if there is a right or wrong to it you can't get the American people to agree what it is and frequently they are vehement in their differences of opinion. Probably the great mass of them do not think of the Filipinos more than once a year, but Col. Thompson's presence in the Philippines as the personal representative and agent of the President is in itself evidence that the American government is perplexed.

This is a question in our international relations and the debate over it here has as much latitude as any one wants. There is no objection to any citizen thinking his country is dead wrong in what it is doing now. If he thinks so he can take off his coat and work as hard as Mr. Shrub would have advised any one to work to put his country right. Some day a definite will be made in Congress. It certainly ought to be. We cannot go on promising one thing and doing another. That at least is not a square deal and it will make trouble. The decision may be to remain and to hold the islands as American territory. That might cause a war. It might in time involve us with an Asiatic power applying our own Monroe Doctrine to its own needs. It might bring about a Filipino insurrection which would have to be put down.

Then what are the Americans going to do who do not like Decatur's sentiment and who do not like that decision to keep the Philippines? Will they obstruct American effort? Will they organize to run supplies through the blockade to the Filipinos? Will they do everything they can to prevent their country from carrying out what they still regard as an iniquitous policy? Will they work so that more American soldiers are killed than need be? Or will they shut up and do what fails to them to do, work for success that the war may be as short as possible and its destruction as little as possible? That's all Decatur asked them to do and they are still permitted to have an inner regret that what their country decided to do was not what would most have pleased their consciences.

Editorial of the Day

THE TRIBUNE SAYS IT ALL.

[Cedar Rapids (Ia.) Republican.] Until we choose a leadership which deserves the respect of the nation we shall not have that respect. Such leadership is the first relief that agriculture and all the interests of the west are in need of, and we must get that relief at home. The rest is sure to come when we have it—Tribune.

Nothing could be truer than this and nothing could be more clearly stated than it is stated here. What Iowa, for example, ought to do, is to seek to build up another delegation in congress such as we had 20 odd years ago, when Senator Allison was chairman of the appropriations committee of the senate. He who had more power in his little finger than both senators from Iowa will have in their whole bodies after the fourth of March next; when Dooliv was his colleague and chairman of one of the other great committees of the senate, and whose voice was heard from Portland to San Francisco, from Duluth to New Orleans whenever he spoke.

At that time we had in the house the chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, the chairman of the interstate commerce committee, the chairman of the military affairs committee, the chairman of the committee on public lands, the ranking member on the judiciary and appropriations committees. Other midwest states, while not as conspicuous as Iowa in the councils of the nation, were represented by men who commanded the respect of the entire country. It will be very difficult to accomplish this task with the primary system, but it could be done if the intelligent men and women of this state would organize to do it.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to put up a large sum of money for any one who would point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to which THE TRIBUNE refers has never accomplished anything for anybody. It would be safe to point out any great constructive measure for which this type of men has been responsible. They not only have not done anything but they never can do anything. "Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs from thistles?" They do not.

Leadership is everything. It takes brains and character for great leadership. The class of statesmen to

MILLION FLOCK TO CONVENTIONS HERE, ESTIMATE

Association of Commerce Lists Summer Guests.

Officials of the Chicago Association of Commerce yesterday estimated that by Sept. 1 the city will have played host to at least 1,000,000 visitors who will have attended the various conventions and gatherings held here since May.

This estimate, prepared by the convention bureau of the association, is based on the following figures: International congresses, 500,000 visitors; Moon and Elk conventions, 200,000 each; smaller gatherings such as the Second Division association meeting and like get-togethers, 100,000.

Two August Conventions.

August will see two large conventions: the Knights of Pythias and the Photographers' Association of America. September brings a large group of steel manufacturers who will meet on the Municipal pier. Considering all these, the 1,000,000 is not exorbitant, the officials said.

A great portion of the Elks here for their convention which closed to all important intents and purposes Thursday, disbanded for home yesterday, and by tonight it is expected most of the thousands will have departed.

During the day reports were substantiated that the "Detroiters" entry in the national balloon race, in sailing to Jennings, Fla., had established a national record of 854 miles. It shattered the previous one of 815 miles made this spring.

The drum and bugle corps of the St. Paul Lodge was judged the best corps participating in the parade Thursday. The corps from Racine, Wis., was second.

JUDGE ORDERS U. S. TO ISSUE BOOZE PERMITS

First interruption of Assistant Prohibition Administrator W. H. Kennedy's tour of inspection, set to grant booze permits appeared yesterday when Federal Judge Adam C. Clift declared dry procedure "unwarranted and improper" at a hearing of petitions presented by two manufacturing concerns.

Judge Clift issued orders restraining prohibition officials and David H. Blair, commissioner of internal revenue, from interfering with the business of the Anthony F. Ambrose company, 616 S. 31st street, makers of bitters, and the Duffy Chemical company, 111 Austin avenue, manufacturers of patent medicines.

The court ordered issuance of permits which will allow the Ambrose company to withdraw 600 gallons of wine every three months. A similar order was made requiring the issuance of a permit for 100 gallons of whisky to be withdrawn by the Duffy company, 111 Austin, which Ambrose concern was required to furnish a bond of $2,000 and the Duffy organization one of $5,000.

Durkin's Plea for New Trial Delayed to July 24

A motion for a new trial in behalf of Martin Durkin, convicted last Saturday of the murder of Edwin Shanahan, government agent, was continued yesterday by Judge Harry B. Miller until July 24. The continuance was at the request of Attorney Eugene McCarty, counsel for Durkin, who is out of the city.

21 Editions have been printed of George A. Dorsey's amazing book

Why We Behave Like Human Beings
Harper & Brothers

BOOKS

Perdita Painted by E. Barrington So Masses Will Thrill

By Fanny Butcher.

"The Exquisite Perdita," by E. Barrington. [Dodd, Mead.]

"The Exquisite Perdita," long awaited, will be a manna for the supplicants, for it is everything that readers like best in E. Barrington's novel. It has a heroine who is sentimentalism itself, dressed up in the most famous of all the tales of its period, tales of beauty and passion, which told about a woman who lived a century and a quarter ago, are thrilling fiction for readers who have no effort in believing that beauty is always virtuous, no matter whose arms have held her.

E. BARRINGTON. A woman who lived a century and a quarter ago are thrilling fiction for readers who have no effort in believing that beauty is always virtuous, no matter whose arms have held her.

It has surrounding characters well known to history to have glamour. Richard Brinsley Sheridan, one of the sparklers of his age, Charles Fox, the Prince of Wales who became George the Fourth, the lovely Elizabeth Sheridan, and, incidentally, the king and queen of England and their rakish brother and his wife, the duke and duchess of Cumberland.

It is the story of Perdita—one of the most beautiful women of her day, the wife of a soldier, Mr. Robinson, who, under the direction of Sheridan and David Garrick, became the toast of London. It is the story of the repulsed loves of half of the fashionable world—in a age and a section of society when love was rarely repulsed, the tale of the passion of the prince of Wales for the lovely "Perdita" of the Winter's Tale, her idyl of Perdita's loss of the prince, her wooing by Fox, the very few months of their alliance, and final her liaison with another courtier and her severe illness and her literary triumph.

"The Exquisite Perdita" is less the story of the dethroned than of the reigning Perdita—a tale sure to tingle the hearts of the mob. There is nothing that gives the public the special kind of thrill that reading about king's mistresses does. Why that should be so the psychoanalyst must tell us. Certainly it is true. The same kind of pleasure that the public gets from the "Perdita" sketch of the Winter's Tale, their idyl of Perdita's loss of the prince, her wooing by Fox, the very few months of their alliance, and final her liaison with another courtier and her severe illness and her literary triumph.

The author has sentimentalized her heroine as she did in "The Chaste Dame" and "The Divine Lady" and as she did her hero in "The Glorious Apollo." And she has material to her hand than which there is nothing more paintable in the manner of the Bouguereau "Bathers." Beauty simply portrayed in its most complete nudity, with simpering hands and faces, "pretended" reality.

At any rate Perdita Robinson was one of the great beauties of her day and she had a life which would make a writer of books like "The Sheik" and "Flaming Youth" think that'd found a platinum forest. E. Barrington chooses to write the story as a tale of the sentimentalities of the laughter and the tears business of the movies. The book is a certain success. Every one will want to read it—and probably will. But when all is said and done, every one has read a book that is as false as "The Green Hat" in its gestures. Spectacular moments, great emotions, high ideals tied to the hem-string of debauchery—and the piper laid it up.

The author has sentimentalized her heroine as she did in "The Chaste Dame" and "The Divine Lady" and as she did her hero in "The Glorious Apollo." And she has material to her hand than which there is nothing more paintable in the manner of the Bouguereau "Bathers." Beauty simply portrayed in its most complete nudity, with simpering hands and faces, "pretended" reality.

21 Editions have been printed of George A. Dorsey's amazing book

Why We Behave Like Human Beings
Harper & Brothers

BEST SELLERS OF THE WEEK

FICTION.
"The Silver Spoon," by John Galsworthy.
"Sorrell and Son," by Warwick Deeping.
"It's Not Done," by William C. Bullitt.
"Hangman's House," by Dona Byrne.
"Afternoon," by Susan Erts.
"Snowshoe Al's Bedtime Stories."

NONFICTION.
"The Book Nobody Knows," by Bruce Barton.
"Maze," by Andre Maurois.
"Abraham Lincoln," by Carl Sandburg.

AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.
"Chimes," by Robert Herrick.
"Three Kingdoms," by Storm Jameson.
"Sorrell and Son," by Warwick Deeping.
"Arcturus Adventure," by William Beebe.
"The Royal Road to Romance," by Richard Haliburton.
"Abraham Lincoln," by Carl Sandburg.

Ancient Chinese Novel Translated from French Version

"The Breeze in the Moonlight." [Putnam's.]

E. BARRINGTON. A woman who lived a century and a quarter ago are thrilling fiction for readers who have no effort in believing that beauty is always virtuous, no matter whose arms have held her.

It has surrounding characters well known to history to have glamour. Richard Brinsley Sheridan, one of the sparklers of his age, Charles Fox, the Prince of Wales who became George the Fourth, the lovely Elizabeth Sheridan, and, incidentally, the king and queen of England and their rakish brother and his wife, the duke and duchess of Cumberland.

It is the story of Perdita—one of the most beautiful women of her day, the wife of a soldier, Mr. Robinson, who, under the direction of Sheridan and David Garrick, became the toast of London. It is the story of the repulsed loves of half of the fashionable world—in a age and a section of society when love was rarely repulsed, the tale of the passion of the prince of Wales for the lovely "Perdita" of the Winter's Tale, her idyl of Perdita's loss of the prince, her wooing by Fox, the very few months of their alliance, and final her liaison with another courtier and her severe illness and her literary triumph.

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-1626. Many adaptations, more or less correct, have been made of the novel. About 1750 Sir Thomas Percy, bishop of Dromore, discovered at Canton an old Portuguese manuscript giving a free translation of a quarter of the work. He translated it into English and from Chinese into French. De Morant has preserved much of the original including the sixteenth century illustrations by Ts'ien Yng [Che-Cheou].

The literary savants agree that the novel was written under the Yuan dynasty, 1277-1348; but the passage in the book itself mentions a minister of astronomy under the title of tsien tsien which was used for the first time under the Ming dynasty, 1348-16

Looking Back on Happiness Always Seems to Magnify It

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Are you happy now? Or, are you one of those individuals who says "I didn't realize it then, but that was the happiest time of my life. I can see it now, looking back."

The speaker is middle aged, perhaps and harassed; or getting old and lonely. Or, she still may be young, but has left her girlhood and happy memories behind her. Anyway, she looks back and says: "How happy I was then, if I had only realized it."

A writer in an English journal says life would be an so much happier adventure if we could only recognize happiness at the time.

"What is she looking back to?" queries the English writer. "School girl days at home, perhaps, when she ran in radiant spirit to get tea ready and amuse the young ones, or picnics, or what not. Or, the days of Sunday, when they were happy days, but then she never thought about whether she was happy or not. She grubbed about having to go to the store, objected to having to help cut sandwiches for the picnic, wept bitterly when it rained on Sunday and she wasn't allowed to wear her new hat. Yet now, in retrospect, she forgives all that and knows those were happy days."

"And the middle aged woman whose grown sons and daughters leave their rooms untidy, or bring home friends she doesn't much care for, or seem sometimes never to remember their mother and all she has done for them—she looks back to the days when they were babies. "They were such darlings. I was so happy then," she thinks, remembering how proudly she used to wheel their carriage down the street with baby in it in her little pink bonnet, and Junior staggering along beside her. She doesn't remember her boy's actual those days, but she used to be always washing, how impatient she got of Junior's slow toddling steps when he would walk and she wanted to get him to put the dinner on. She forgets all that and remembers only what cause she had for happiness.

So it goes, all through life, if we let it, always thinking of the happy days that were, or the happy days to come,

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

A Freak.

I was trying on hats. I remarked to my friend as I took off a black hat. "Heavens! That hat sure is a freak!" "Pardon me," said the woman standing behind me, "those days, when I used to be always washing, how impatient she got of Junior's slow toddling steps when he would walk and she wanted to get him to put the dinner on. She forgets all that and remembers only what cause she had for happiness.

making a big hit. When we were ready to leave I rose, rather self-conscious in my new tuxedo, and started for a midnight restaurant for something to eat. Things had been progressing wonderfully all evening and I was beginning to think that I was Taken for a Waiter.

After attending a formal dance a few nights ago I took my girl friend to a midnight restaurant for something to eat. Things had been progressing wonderfully all evening and I was beginning to think that I was making a big hit.

When we were ready to leave I rose, rather self-conscious in my new tuxedo, and started for a midnight restaurant for something to eat. Things had been progressing wonderfully all evening and I was beginning to think that I was making a big hit.

Alfred Baker to Resume Residence in This Part of World

BY NANCY R.

It's been looking to as if the Alfred Baker were going to spend most of their time in this part of the world after all. Last spring their many friends here bade them adieu for what promised to be a prolonged absence abroad; there was even a rumor that they would live in Europe. But being good Americans, they have found that this country suits them best, and now they're herebound bound.

Mr. Baker is already here; he returned to Chicago recently and opened his Lake Forest house, where he is settled and ready to receive Mrs. Baker, who sails for these shores on the twenty-fourth of the month. Miss Mary Baker is remaining abroad with a chaperon; she is giving up the charming life of 43 Portland place, London, where she had such a while during the gay London season past, and will spend the remainder of the summer in Paris or at some smart French watering place.

By the bye, it's being whispered about by the wise ones that she found England's only bachelor duke—whether she really doesn't want to be a duchess, or whether she's waiting to be called off to the real Lochinvar to be seen. Certainly she enjoys the life in foreign metropolises: perhaps the independence of her own share in it also pleases her.

As for Mr. Baker, I understand he is happy to be at home again. As he's an excellent bridge player, perhaps he was joking when he remarked the other day that what he liked best about London was the cou'ts he met while playing bridge in the clubs there; no one remonstrated with him or jumped down his throat when he revoked or otherwise misplayed—apparently no one minded in the least what he did during the game.

Day's News in Society

Lake Forest gardens to be open to the public today offer the last opportunity of the summer to those who would meander in the well kept paths of other's gardens. The gardens are the last of the Lake Forest Garden club's program of open gardens. Mrs. Charles H. Schwepp's great place by the lake with its new swimming pool and its adjoining rock garden is one of the attractions. Mrs. William E. Clegg, which has been substituted for Mrs. De Forest Hulburt's, also has a swimming pool. Mrs. Louis E. Laffin's and Mrs. Augustus A. Carpenter's gardens connect and are prettily laid out. The delphinium and lilies are in bloom now.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blake Dick of Lake Forest are to give a dinner and dance for about two hundred this evening at their home and do so will Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Dick of Washington, D. C., at their residence. The Dicks are departing the first part of next week after a fortnight's visit in Lake Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter's daughter, Nancy, and their son, Thomas, have been playing in the tennis tournament at the Montserrat Country club in the Massachusetts north shore district, as also have Rose and Nancy Whitman, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks H. Whitman (Adele Chatfield-Taylor). Mrs. Harlow D. Higginbotham of Joliet has arrived for her annual July visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. and Mrs. Frank H. Hill estate at Ipswich, Conn. Mrs. Higginbotham is Mrs. Crane's sister-in-law and has many friends in the north shore colony. Cornelius Crane has taken a party of school friends on a cruise to Newfoundland in his new schooner yacht, Megadis.

Other Chicagoans who have arrived in the north shore towns are Mrs. William H. Bell of Evanston, who has been to Rockport; Mr. and Mrs. David Lee, who have a cottage at Riverview, Gloucester, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Calder, who are also at Gloucester.

Word comes from the east that the John Wentworths, who are now residing at 222 East Delaware place, are planning to build in the fall a residence in the fashionable Green Spring Valley outside of Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Wentworth is the former Mrs. Theodore Marburg Jr. of Baltimore, where she was considered one of the most beautiful and important residents of the younger set. The McNamee girls, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William B. McNamee and Howard Woods, Priscilla, who became Mrs. Benjamin A. Brewster II, and Romaine, who is now Mrs. Blanchard Randall, have residences in Green Spring Valley, where much of the hunting, steeplechasing and riding of the smart folk in the east are on. Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth are to depart on Aug. 20 for an indefinite stay abroad.

Mrs. William E. Swift of Lake Forest is to give a dinner party this evening.

Americans in London. (Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, July 16.—American residents at the London office of THE TRIBUNE today were entertained by Mrs. and Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg, who are to be the guests of the American Embassy. Harry Meakin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matthiessen, was elected first vice president of the club. The ceremony is to be performed at 4:30 o'clock at the St. James Episcopal church chapel and is to be witnessed by a reception at the Small residence. Only relatives and the most intimate friends are to be present.

Miss Small, who is to be attended by Miss Jean Stevenson and Miss Anna Smith, and by Miss Anna Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg gave a dinner last evening in their suburban home for Mme. de Rudebeck of Sweden, who was here some months ago with the party with the crown prince and crown princess of Sweden. She will start in a few days to join the crown prince's party in the far west, her husband being one of his suite.

Representative and Mrs. Fred A. Britten have selected Aug. 1 for their sailing date and will remain in their apartment at Wardman Park hotel until a few days before that. They will be absent two months and Mrs. Britten will attend the meeting of the inter-parliamentary union in Geneva.

The wife of Bridgewater, Va., whose engagement was recently announced to Henry Duff of Chicago, was entertained at a bridge tea yesterday by Miss Eileen Purcell in her Washington home. The wedding of Miss Wise and Mr. Duff will take place Aug. 10 in Bridgewater in the home of her father, H. J. Wise.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—The secretary of state, Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg gave a dinner last evening in their suburban home for Mme. de Rudebeck of Sweden, who was here some months ago with the party with the crown prince and crown princess of Sweden. She will start in a few days to join the crown prince's party in the far west, her husband being one of his suite.

Representative and Mrs. Fred A. Britten have selected Aug. 1 for their sailing date and will remain in their apartment at Wardman Park hotel until a few days before that. They will be absent two months and Mrs. Britten will attend the meeting of the inter-parliamentary union in Geneva.

The wife of Bridgewater, Va., whose engagement was recently announced to Henry Duff of Chicago, was entertained at a bridge tea yesterday by Miss Eileen Purcell in her Washington home. The wedding of Miss Wise and Mr. Duff will take place Aug. 10 in Bridgewater in the home of her father, H. J. Wise.

Benefit for Infirmary.

For the benefit of a fund to purchase a new organ for the Catholic chapel at the Oak Forest infirmary the Superior Players' Dramatic club will present two performances of a three act comedy drama, "For the Love of Johnny," at the St. Augustine Auditorium tomorrow afternoon and evening. The first performance will be at 2:30 o'clock and the second at 8:15 in the evening.

New York

$30.70
New York
11.28 Cleveland via NICKEL RATE ROAD

Lowest One Way Fares to other Points East

Third Sleeping Cars & Coaches
Parlor Cars Dining Car Service
Daily 10:40 A.M. 2:40 P.M. 9:00 P.M.

C. A. ASTERLIN, Gen'l Mgr.—Pass. Agt.
1000 N. State St., Chicago, Ill.

8:00 A.M. 12:30 P.M. 4:30 P.M.

12:30 P.M. 3:00 P.M. 6:30 P.M.

4:30 P.M. 7:00 P.M. 9:30 P.M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

12:00 M. 2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M. 8:00 A.M.

8:00 A.M. 10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M.

10:00 A.M. 12:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M.

2:00 P.M. 4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M.

4:00 P.M. 6:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M.

8:00 P.M. 10:00 P.M. 12:00 M.

10:00 P.M. 12:00 M. 2:00 A.M.

2:00 A.M. 4:00 A.M. 6:00 A.M.

4:00 A.M.

Not only do Columbia New Process Records afford an entirely new conception of phonograph music as now rendered with absolute fidelity to the original, but the entire absence of scratching sounds on the smooth, silent surface is exclusively a Columbia feature, and positively unobtainable in any other make of record.

If you have not yet heard Columbia New Process Records, a great treat is in store for you. Your own phonograph, no matter of what make or style, will suddenly become a far more valuable means of entertainment than you ever supposed it could be.

New Process Recordings of Great Symphonies

For your introduction to Columbia New Process Records, visit a near-by Columbia dealer and hear the brilliant and enriched scores, for example, of such works as those of Beethoven, Bach, Brahms, Tchaikovsky, César Franck, Berlioz, all imported recordings by Columbia. Or perhaps you will especially enjoy that newest Columbia Masterworks Set No. 39, Beethoven's Ninth Symphony in 16 parts on eight 12 inch records, $12 complete. Columbia dealers will play these new records for you and hand you the Columbia Celebrity Catalogue giving full information about them. Or send for a copy direct to Columbia Phonograph Company, 1819 Broadway, New York City, N. Y.

Perhaps you prefer Dance or Dinner Music. On your own phonograph, the newest and most popular fox trots, waltzes, Charlestons, if played on Columbia New Process Records, give you an entirely new sensation. Never before have phonograph records been able to provide that snappy, rhythmical quality so desirable for home or club entertainment. Columbia has recording arrangements with many famous bands and orchestras you have heard, or heard about; which is still another reason for insisting on getting Columbia New Process Records and being satisfied with no others. For only on Columbia Records do you get that richness, tone-volume and dance-ability so instantly recognized everywhere as the real thing.

Some Dance Hits for Summer Fun

620-D	Drifting and Dreaming	Hi-Ho the Merrio
10 in. 75c	The Monkey Doodle-Doo	Tonight's My Night with Baby
	Fox Trot—Ted Lewis and His Band	Fox Trot—The Kickerbackers
631-D	Valencia	I May Be Dancing with Somebody Else
10 in. 75c	Cherie, I Love You	Bye Bye Blackbird
	Fox Trot—Ross Gorman and His Orch.	Fox Trot—Leo Reisman and Orchestra
643-D	At Peace with the World (Waltz)	That's Why I Love You
10 in. 75c	Blue Bonnet—You Make Me Feel Blue	Where Did You Get Those Eyes?
	(Fox Trot)—Ipana Troubadours	Fox Trot—Ted Lewis and His Band

COLUMBIA

New Process Records

COLUMBIA PHONOGRAPH CO., 1819 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

COLUMBIA PHONOGRAPH CO., 434 South Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

JOE STE GETS F IN RED'

Quits Be
New Pr

Joe Sternaman,
the Chicago Bear

JOE STERNAMAN
(Tribune Photo)
today in New Yo lowing a five day members.
an unnotic time ago of Stern
if present plan
three profession
major league call ago this fall. Th
Bears and Cardi
National Professi and the newly team. George Hal brother of Joe, an Chicago Bears. For Joe has been the
the north side te here from the I brother.

Financial

Joe's desert which plays at C financial battle for skeptics say most three major l
The Chicago Bulls and black, the col city, where Joe well as many me
Bears team for These colors also team, the Chicago Bears, team, have moved to

The Chicago Bu jockey park at a f season, it is said.
years this park ha
O'Brien's Cardinal on a percentage previously given park and had ann would play its ha mal park, Racin street. The Carr of town games th
time in three year

Players'

Joe Sternaman
nouncement of the Chicago Bulls. B war for players between the Chic president of Nat viously has anno of his circu tracts and play will be barred fr
while, on the othe play for a world between the win outs.

The Bears and uled their annu games. These a went of Grange profits, were the of the pro seas tators that at a

Other C

The other chil
American pro lea
New York, C. C.
J. Flugay, Newark
Boston, Robert E.
Carmen, Rock Island,
George Wilson club
hus team.

Bennie Big Bu
the offi
Zimmerman, Cle
Joe Sternaman,
and W. J. Cou
treasurer.

The schedule announced Aug.

Tilder
Lott i
Tenn

Cincinnati, O.
T. Tilden, Phil
pion, playing finals of the t ment with his for Coen of Ka set battle today
Iermo. Aragon
Davis cup stars
8-3, 7-5, 5-7
Tilden and entered the sin
ment today.
Reid, Cleveland
four sets, 6-3, Lott, eliminated
local star, in s

Opposing the the doubles f and Paul Kin
ers, who defat
in Tex, and R

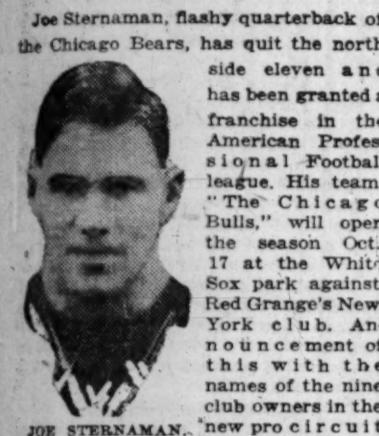

SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1926

 13

DELANEY BEATS BERLENBACH FOR TITLE

JOE STERNAMAN
GETS FRANCHISE
IN RED'S LEAGUE

Quits Bears to Pilot
New Pro Eleven.

JOE STERNAMAN, "new pro circuit" [Tribune Photo] was released yesterday in New York by C. C. Pyle, following a five day meeting of the league members.

This announcement verifies the report published in The Tribune some time ago of Sternaman's intention to quit.

If present plans are carried out, three professional football teams of major league caliber will play in Chicago this fall. The three will be the Bears and Cardinals, members of the National Professional Football League, and the newly organized Sternaman team. George Halas and Ed Sternaman, brother of Joe, are the owners of the Chicago Bears. For the last three years, Joe has been the chief attraction of the north side team. He was brought here from the Duluth team by his brother.

Financial Battle Seen.

Joe's desertion of the Bear team, which plays at Cub's Park, is the beginning of a financial battle between the brothers for skeptics say Chicago cannot support three major league pro grid teams.

The Chicago Bulls have selected orange and black, the colors of Illinois university, where Joe and Ed played, as well as many members of the present Bears team for their official colors. These colors also have been used by the Chicago Bears since the old Staley team was moved to the Cub park.

The Chicago Bulls have leased Comiskey park at a flat rate for football season it is said. For the last three years this park has been used by Chris O'Brien's Cardinals, and it was leased on a percentage basis. O'Brien had previously given up the White Sox park and had announced that his team would play its home games at Norwood park, Racine avenue and 61st street. The Cardinals will play out of town games this season for the first time in three years.

Players' War Likely.

Joe Sternaman has made no announcement of the personnel of the Chicago Bulls. It is possible that a war for players may be waged between the Chicago teams. Joe Carr, president of National Pro league, previously has announced that all players of his circuit who jump their contracts and play in the Pyle league, will be barred from his organization. Pyle, on the other hand, has presented plans for a world's series football game between the winners of the two circuits.

The Bears and Cardinals have scheduled their annual city series of two games. The series, before the advent of Grange and the era of larger profits, were the outstanding feature of the pro season and drew more spectators than at any other time.

Other Clubs Named.

The other clubs and owners of the American pro league are:

- John C. Pyle, Brooklyn, member J. Furay, Newark, N. J.; W. J. Coughlin, Boston, Robert K. McKinley, Philadelphia, L. S. Coughlin, Cleveland, George H. Bowley, and the George Wilson club, which will be a traveling team.

Beside Big Bill Edwards, president, the officers of the league are: Gen. C. X. Zimmerman, Cleveland, vice president; Joe Sternaman, Chicago, secretary; and W. J. Coughlin, Newark, N. J., treasurer.

The schedule of the league will be announced Aug. 1.

Tilden Plays
Lott in Final Tennis Match

CARDINALS BUY
MINOR LEAGUE
HOME RUN KING

Cincinnati, O., July 16.—(P)—William T. Tilden, Philadelphia tennis champion, played in the doubles semifinals of the tri-state tennis tournament with his youthful protégé, Junior Coen of Kansas City, lost a five set battle today to Francisco and Guillermo Aragon of Manila, Philippine Davis cup stars. The score was 3-6, 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

Tilden and George Lott, Chicago, entered the singles finals of the tournament today. Tilden downed Kirk Reid, Cleveland, state champion, in four sets, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, while Lott, eliminated Raymond Kunkel, local star, in straight sets, 6-0, 6-3, 6-2.

Opposing the Aragon brothers in the doubles final will be Raymond and Paul Kunkel, Cincinnati brothers, who defeated H. O. Mather, Austin, Tex., and Ellis Klingman, Chicago, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

RAIN HALTS FOX

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

[Chicago Tribune Free Service.]

Boston, Mass., July 16.—Bob Collins and his White Sox crew arrived here this morning in a drizzling rain that was just a bit stronger than a Scotch mist and it continued throughout the day so there was no ball game with the striving Red Sox. To make up for it there will be a double header to start at 4 p.m.

It was quite disappointing to Collins and his men because they were in a winning mood with the pitching staff all set for topnotch stuff. As it is now the two aces will be on the mound tomorrow in the double header, Ted Lyons and Ted Lyons.

Unless there is a decided change in the weather between now and tomorrow afternoon there will be no double header as the Scotch mist seems to remain in the vicinity and it often stays around this part for three or four days before it wears out.

JOSE CAPABALANCE HOLDS CHESS LEAD

Lake Hopatcong, N. J., July 16.—(P)—

Jose R. Capablanca of Havana held his lead in the Pan-American chess tournament today by drawing with Kupchik of New York in a seventh round match after 41 moves.

Opposing the Aragon brothers in the doubles final will be Raymond and Paul Kunkel, Cincinnati brothers, who defeated H. O. Mather, Austin, Tex., and Ellis Klingman, Chicago, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

Opposing the Aragon brothers in the doubles final will be Raymond and Paul Kunkel, Cincinnati brothers, who defeated H. O. Mather, Austin, Tex., and Ellis Klingman, Chicago, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

THE GUMPS—IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

JACK OUTBOXES, OUTFIGHTS PAUL
IN 15 ROUNDS

Each Scores Doubtful Knockdown.

Fight Decisions

Decisions of Tribune boxing representatives are:

- At Brooklyn.—Jack Delaney beat Paul Berlenbach [15]; Ted Nelson beat Jimmy Francis [8]; Arthur De Kuh knocked out George Walsh, draw [4]; Monte Mann beat Gordon Hayes [4]; Harry Lorenz beat Billy Reynolds [4].
- At New Haven, Conn.—O-Pete Lazio stopped Ted Nelson [4].
- At Philadelphia, Pa.—Tommy O'neal and Tommy Farley fought draw [8]; Gene McManus beat Joe Tipps [8].
- At Toledo, Ohio.—George Gomes knocked out Frank Petry [3]; Elip Sing Lee stopped Joey Wallace [3].

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

CINCINNATI, O., July 16.—The complete stopping of betting at the Coney Island race track, which was to open yesterday, is a possibility, as the result of Judge Thomas H. Darby instructing the Criminal court grand jury today to investigate gambling in this county.

Hit Ohio Betting

BY FRENCH LANE.

(Picture on back page.) Max Brick, foxy Tim Mosher of Galesburg, Ill., and old Arthur Pickens came out of riding at Washington yesterday and when he smote a horse he cleared after the running of the Eagle River mile handicap it was discovered, they had run away with all the spurs.

John McGraw, and Chicago thoroughbred Chicago's lowered their colors to this downstate combination, which has been strangely silent Jockey A. Pickens, since the new Homewood course opened. But when old Tim put the saddle on old Mac yesterday and Old Mac Pickens came into the paddock there was on a serious pace.

And after staying well off the pace for six furlongs, running in fourth place, Max moved up with one of his famous stretch dashes a sixteenth out.

Runs Over Contenders.

It carried him past Bulletin, Chago and Cogwheel, which had staged a rousing battle for the lead, and got him the big end of the $1,500 purse.

Max beat Bulletin a length and Chicago, weakly handled by Jockey John McGraw, and Chicago's finishing pair in third place.

Goldie Johnson used all his wizardry on Cogwheel, but the best he could do was finish fourth.

Chink in the Stretch.

The biggest weekday crowd of the season, well over 12,000, watched the card decided and cheered old Max, old Tim and Old Man Pickens after the race as price against him dropped from an opening quotation of 25 to 1 at post time.

Green Woods was the winner of the Moxley purse, a claiming affair which was fourth on the program.

It wasn't the first time Max Brick has upset some so-called horses of class

before the advance of American and Chicago enthusiasm yesterday.

The silence of the Scotland links no longer lives in our parks.

Our galleries want their favorites to win and their enthusiasm is not shown by whispern.

Mrs. Florence Jacob, a member of the Jackson Park club, was putting on the eighteenth green in her semi-final tennis because if that putt didn't drop two Lincoln park players might be in the finals today, the other being Mrs. Virginia Weltman, who had defeated Mrs. A. R. Copeland, Jackson park, 3 and 2.

Razzberry Rings Out.

Mrs. Jacobs putted and the ball swerved around the hole. A grand old left-field bleacher "razzberry" rang out. It had been sung before during the match, but not with such enthusiasm.

So Miss Beebe, the favorite of the gallery, and Mrs. Jacobs were forced to an extra hole.

They teed up on the 88th first hole. Mrs. Jacobs drove down the middle, advanced a little and her second and still further.

Her third and the green in four emphatic wallop and was down in two putts.

Miss Beebe was off line in the rough on her first, chipped out on her second, short on her third, over the green into the rough on her fourth and on in five strokes. She got down in two putts, but lost the hole and the match and the gallery groaned.

Miss Weltman, Mrs. Jacobs in Final Today.

BY MORROW KRUM.

Another tradition of the links crum-bed before the advance of American and Chicago enthusiasm yesterday.

The silence of the Scotland links no longer lives in our parks.

Our galleries want their favorites to win and their enthusiasm is not shown by whis-

pern.

Miss Weltman, Mrs. Jacobs in Final Today.

BY DON SKENE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

London, July 16.—Several of London's most distinguished physicians announced the condition of George Huff, athletic director of the University of Illinois, as "Maintaining yesterday's slight improvement, although his case is grave and most critical."

The doctors are quite pleased with the patient's fighting rally to health,

it was declared in a statement from

Miss Fullerton's Nursing home, where the Illinois athletic mentor is fighting for his life.

Students Cheered by News.

Champaign, Ill., July 16.—[Special.]

Illinois students, faculty, and friends are greatly cheered by a cable today that George Huff showed some improvement and believe that he may regain his health.

His son, George Jr., was finally not

UTED AS CHAMPION
ER CLASS

Approve of Saturday.

ECKERSALL, manager of Charley in heavyweight who of Indianapolis
July 21, yesterday the eastern col-who meets Wobolt the bouts of Jim the White Sox park

the next witterif Pete Lazio will McCarney said yes-not surprise me if weight and middle-year of so. Right than Tiger ound champion. In been comitted to to get matches with ridiculous ease.
who should make upon Chicago

TOMORROW.
e tomorrow to com-Langford recent-fifteen round decliat New Orleans.
he meets Tommy Pai, in the fea-card gave a large real contribution ess yesterday. Bud with Bobby Houghes in Young Ross. In ent on the road in aged in an hour's boxes Card.

card received the
from the boxing also accepted his forests were de-mission, and their licences acted upon

Polo
ment to Today

matches of the the Mid-Western tional tournament will ounds of the On-Forest, this after-will be open to the

for 2 o'clock, will Crusaders of Hinckle-club of Hinckle.

users' colors are son Jr., son of the Field & Co.; No.

No. 3, Frank Ber-

ney, Jr., Reynold, son of the Continental-bank.

up presents as

First National Bank.

Field & Co.; No.

No. 3, Carl

Paul H. Butler,

the St. Louis

at 3:30 o'clock on the North presented in the

Cleveland, De-Moines.

cut and you've it," Architect

PERE MARQUETTE GETS NEW TERMS OF NICKEL PLATE

BY O. A. MATHER.

Railroad consolidations again came into the foreground yesterday. Chief in importance was progress made toward the $1,000,000,000 Nickel Plate merger by the reaching of an agreement between the Van Sweringen brothers and the subcommittee of the Pere Marquette on the revised plan for the consolidation, which already has been favorably received by the directors of the Erie.

Chairman E. N. Brown of the Pere Marquette said last night that the principal differences between the modified terms and the original agreement have been worked out and that only minor technicalities remain to be completed. While the terms reached yesterday were not announced, it is understood more liberal terms are granted to all classes of Pere Marquette stockholders. The subcommittee and the Van Sweringens will hold another conference on Monday and agree on a final draft to be submitted to the full board of the Pere Marquette.

Two Roads Still Hold Out.

The Van Sweringens still have the task of bringing the Chesapeake and Ohio and the Hocking Valley stockholders into line. The minority interests in these roads proved the main obstacle to their former plan and won their fight before the interstate commerce commission. The stockholders' protective committee of the Chesapeake and Ohio yesterday issued a statement opposing the Nickel Plate merger on the grounds that it would reduce the income of common stockholders.

Steps toward another railroad merger were taken yesterday when L. F. Loring filed application with the commerce commission for permission for the Delaware and Hudson to lease the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh for 999 years. The Delaware and Hudson would guarantee a return of 6 per cent to stockholders of the leased road. Mr. Loring does not state how the roads would be connected in his earlier trunk line plan suggested taking in either the Lackawanna or the Lehigh Valley.

Other Merger Projects Up.

The commerce commission set dates for hearings on two minor merger projects. Application of the Reading for authority to acquire control of the Lehigh and New England by Lehigh was assigned for hearing on July 25 and the application of the Gulf, Mobile and Northern by purchase of capital stock was scheduled for hearing on July 6.

The commission also approved the financial reorganization plan of the Boston and Maine railroad. The road will issue $13,000,000 of its 6 per cent prior preference stock, to be sold at par and accrued dividends, and $43,525,000 of mortgage bonds, to be exchanged at not less than par and accrued interest in the refunding of certain bonds.

The total amount of readjustment expense to be paid by the road or out of the shares and dividends surrendered by the stockholders to its readjustment committee should not exceed $1,000,000, the commission said. The Boston and Maine proposes to expand during the next three years for additions and betterments approximately $16,120,960, which will be chargeable to capital account.

Trade Reviews Cheered.

The week-end news of trade and industry was cheerful yesterday. In the automobile field President Erskine announced that the Studebaker corporation has resumed operations on a progressive scale, with July output at 7,500 cars and August production at 15,000 cars, or plant capacity. He said business is exceptionally good and that he expects the last half of this year to be better than the first.

Industrial employment at Detroit last week increased 11,400 to 230,045 persons. As to general trade, Dun's Review noted that the first half of July, which is normally a period of diminishing activities in all lines, has brought increased operations in several directions this year and confidence has been further restored.

Bradstreet's notes a "fairly prompt rally from mid-year dullness" and that "industry, largely in constructive lines, has quickened after a shorter than normal period of stock-taking shutdowns."

INVESTORS GUIDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

Inquiries must bear the signature and address of writer. Answers of public interest will be given, those not of general interest will be withheld. U stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Address letters to Investors' Guide.

Answers are based upon information which THE TAURUS believes correct, but beyond care in securing it. THE TAURUS assumes no responsibility.

Saturday, July 17, 1926.

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

METROPOLITAN Chain Stores.

F. H. -Metropolitan Chain Stores, Inc., now operates 82 general merchandise stores in the United States and Canada. It reported net profits of $470,801 for 1925. This is equivalent to $2.68 a share on its 180,300 shares of outstanding common stock after preferred dividends.

Sales for June, 1926, were $1,265,877, against $632,153 for June, 1925, and for the first half of 1925, $2,405,743, against $2,227,305, the first half of 1925.

The first preferred stock deserves a fairly good rating.

The second preferred is of medium grade.

The common is a speculation at present.

We cannot predict the course of the market.

Brief Answers.

V. L. K. Evanston, III.—The Walker Vehicle company first real estate is due semi-annually to Jan. 1, 1930, are a sound investment.

L. B. D. Houston, Tex.—Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company first mortgage $s of 1941 are a sound investment.

D. W. A. Joplin, Mo.—Union Electric Light and Power company (of Missouri) first mortgage $s of 1932 are a sound investment.

D. L. Elgin III—New York and Jersey railroad first mortgage $s of 1932 are a sound investment.

RUBBER MARKET.

NEW YORK, July 16.—(AP)—RUBBER closed strong: July, 40.50c; Sept., 41.80c;

December, 42.60c.

NEW YORK • STOCK • TRANSACTIONS

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE: SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1926.

Friday, July 16, 1926. Total sales, 1,625,500. Year ago, 1,369,000.

Div. paid Total sales, 1,6

TO RENT-STORES- WEST.
TO RENT-181 N. CICERO-AV. HIGH CLASS store suitable for any high grade business. For rent $1000 per month. G. H. GOTTSCHALK & CO. Franklin 2800.

TO RENT-325 S. KREUZER-AV. 1625ft. NR. 1st fl. 2000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl. 1000 sq. ft. Total 4000 sq. ft. Rent $1000 per month. $400 is taken this week. Apply on present. Sun. p.m. 1 to 3.

TO RENT-STORES- 655 N. CICERO-MOD. FOR: Food and Drug. Clean. Inv. $700.

TO RENT-STORES- SUBURBAN.
RESTAURANT SITE.

Dandy location for first class restaurant: lots of tourists' trade; corner store.

2625 N. Elston, good location, fine store, rent $1000 per month if you want it. For up to $1250 per month. Located for 6 miles west: Western-av. is Dixie and Lincoln-av.

ELMER JORDAN & CO., 5410 W. 63rd-st. Realtors. Prospect 8700.

TO RENT-GOOD OAK PARK LOCATION- new bldg. on busy corner: fine loc. for doctor, dentist, optician, druggist, etc. $1000 per month. Phone Mansfield 7101.

TO RENT-250 SQ. FT. RM. SUIT. LIGHT factory or office. 1717 N. 367 Calumet, Hammond, Indiana.

TO RENT-HEATED STORE, FACING L. station at 711 south-bldg. Oak Park. G. H. SCHNEIDER & CO. Franklin 3800.

TO RENT-OFFICES AND SHOPS.

Central.

TO RENT-IN THE TRIBUNE TOWER, outside office space -unsurpassed for light, air, service, and appointments. All day parking facilities. Space divided to suit; mahogany trim, cork carpet, awnings, windows shades, etc. Price reasonable. Apply Holmes Onderdonk, Manager, R. 1229 Tribune Tower. Telephone Superior 0100.

CORNER OFFICES

DEARBORN AND MADISON.

Hartford Building.

Real Advertising Value.

Also a Few Small Suites.

WARTERFIELD & COUSIN, Room 402, Central 6637.

ST. CLAIR BLDG.

ERIE ST. AND MICHIGAN-AV. Near Tribune, Wrigley Bldgs. and Drake Hotel. Fine building. Good plumbing. Mahogany finish. Best plumbing; beautiful entrance in fine occupancy; few offices from 500 to 1000 sq. ft. rent $1000 per month. North Central P. O. pld. 165 W. WASHINGTON-ST.

Suites of 1, 2, or 3 rms. Also some open space; reasonable rentals.

JUDSON F. STONE, Agent, Main 1776. 30 N. La Salle-st.

TACOMA BLDG., 5 N. La Salle-st. Franklin 3461.

SECURITY BLDG., 18 W. MADISON-ST. Main 3595.

Well lighted office suites, 200 to 750 sq. ft. Rent $100 to $140.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO, $150.

CORNER 3 ROOM SUITE OF UNUSUAL MERIT.

DEARBORN AND ADAMS-STS. F. P. STONE, 30 N. La Salle-st.

MAIN 1776. 30 N. La Salle-st.

CHICAGO-CLARK BLDG., N. W. Cor. Chicago and Clark

Suites and small offices, also units of 500, 800 and 1,000 sq. ft. Ex. 1st fl. Fine office building. Room 1007. Delawara 2000.

RENT-1000 BLDG. MANAGEMENT CORP., 111 W. Washington. Main 2600.

CHICAGO STOCK EXCHANGE BLDG.

90 N. La Salle-st.

A few small offices, 500 and up.

JUDSON F. STONE, 30 N. La Salle-st.

Main 1776. 30 N. La Salle-st.

BURNHAM BLDG.

Sublease large furnished office, including private office, 1000 sq. ft. Rent $1000 or less. 100 N. La Salle-st. Main 1422.

America Ford Building.

Outside office and reception room. Apply Room 1000, 200 sq. ft. in modern building. Suite and immediate possession.

SELLERS BUILDING.

PRIVATE OFFICES, $40-$90.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

431 W. Madison. Central 5473.

AUDITORIUM BLDG.

PRIVATE OFFICES, $40-$90.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

431 W. Madison. Central 5473.

PARTITIONS- RAILING.

TO RENT-1000 OFFICES FOR JOB- bers, etc. 241-245 W. Van Buren. $100 per month. 1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

1000 sq. ft. 1st fl. 1000 sq. ft. 2nd fl.

